

Feature Article: Suspect in six area bank robberies in one month confesses to five

Deaths, 22A
Editorials, 2AA
Education, 2BA

METROPOLITAN

Local & State

Suspect in six area bank robberies in one month confesses to five

By STEPHEN JOHNSON
Houston Chronicle

The assistant manager of a coffee shop captured in five area bank robberies after being arrested inside a southwestern Houston crack house early Sunday, according to law enforcement officials.

Michael Wayne Moore, 28, was charged with five counts of robbery to derive in connection with robberies at five banks in Harris County. He also is a suspect in a sixth robbery that occurred Friday night at Fort Bend County.

Moore's alleged crimes appear to have begun Nov. 11 with the robbery of a Wells Fargo bank at 11011 West Houston.

He also is a suspect in a robbery of the Bank United while Kroyer is perpetrating of 1922 Highway 4 South on Friday.

According to Fort Bend County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman Cheryl Skinner, a man entered the Kroyer store at 3:30 p.m. Friday and pointed a rifle to a Bank United teller saying he had a gun and wanted money.

When the robbery suspect left the scene, Skinner said the license plate number on a Honda Accord and reported it to police, said Skinner. A car bearing the reported license plate was spotted early Saturday by Houston patrol officers who arrested Moore at a known crack house in the 3000 block of Hardy.

Moore is being held in Harris County Jail in lieu of $200,000 bond.

